On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 13, 2024

Michael M. Crow, President
Arizona State University

Dear President Crow:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met May 3, 2024, in Washington, D.C., and voted 11-0, with six recusals, that the undergraduate and professional master's programs in the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Arizona State University receive reaccreditation. Dean Battinto Batts attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for reaccreditation.

We will be in touch with the XXX about the next visit for the school, scheduled for the 2029-2030 academic year.

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for success for the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication, its students, faculty, and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,
