

Accrediting Council

On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 8, 2024

Amy Parsons, President
Colorado State University

Dear President Parsons:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met May 3, 2024, in Washington, D.C., and voted 15-0, with two recusals, that the undergraduate program in the Department of Journalism & Media Communication at Colorado State University receive reaccreditation. Associate Professor David Wolfgang attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for reaccreditation.

We will be in touch with Dr. Marilee Long, chair, about the next visit for the school, scheduled for the 2029-2030 academic year.

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for success for the Department of Journalism & Media Communication at Colorado State University, its students, faculty, and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,
