

Accrediting Council

On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 8, 2024

Douglas A. Girod, Chancellor
University of Kansas

Dear Chancellor Girod:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met May 3, 2024, in Washington, D.C., and voted 15-0, with two recusals, that the undergraduate program in the William Allen White School of Journalism and Mass Communications at the University of Kansas receive reaccreditation. Associate Dean Scott Reinardy attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for reaccreditation.

We will be in touch with Dr. Brill about the next visit for the school, scheduled for the 2029-2030 academic year.

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for success for the William Allen White School of Journalism and Mass Communication, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,
